What I have already learned about different religions

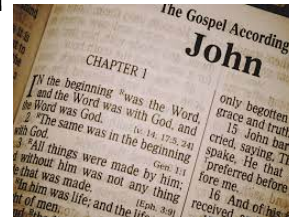

- Christians worship in churches through prayer, singing and services led by a priest, Minister or Vicar., reading from The Bible (Sacred Text)
- Muslims worship in a Mosque, read from The Koran (sacred Text) and believe in Mohammed
- Jews worship in a synagogue with services led by a rabbi reading from The Torah.
- Hindus worship in a temple led by a Mandir, reading from The Vedas (Sacred Text) and believe in Brahman who is One God with many qualities displayed in hundreds of Murtis (gods)
- Sikhs worship in a Gurdwara led by any Sikh, reading from The Guru Granth Sahib (Sacred Text)

By the end of this Unit I

- Will be able to explain how Incarnation and Salvation fit in the 'big story' of The Bible.
- Will be able to explain what Christians mean when they say that Jesus' death was a sacrifice.
- Will be able to made connections between the Christian belief in Jesus' death and how Christians celebrate Holy Week.
- Will be able to show how Christians put their beliefs into practice in different ways.
- Will be able to weigh up the value and impact of ideas of sacrifice in their lives and the world today.
- Will be able to articulate my responses to the idea of sacrifice, recognising different points of view.

Information that will help me

The Bible, also known as the Holy Bible, is a group of religious texts of Judaism or Christianity. The word Bible comes from the Greek word which means "books" in English, because it is many books in one book (66 books). It includes laws, stories, prayers, songs, and wise words. The two main sections are the Old and New Testament.

The Gospels

When people talk about "the gospel," there's only one thing they mean: the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John are the four books of the Bible that record almost everything we know about Jesus. If we want to learn about the things Jesus said and did, we have to turn to these ancient texts, believed to have been written by eyewitnesses or people who spoke with them during the first century. They are stories told in such a way as to evoke a certain image of Jesus for a particular audience.

Holy Week

In Christianity, Holy Week is the week leading up to Easter Sunday. The week begins on Palm Sunday and includes the events of The Last Supper, Jesus' arrest in Gethsemane, Jesus' crucifixion on Good Friday and his resurrection on Easter Sunday.
