Utopia	An imagined place where everything is perfect.

By the end of this Unit I will be able to.....

- Explain connections between biblical texts and the concept of the kingdom of God
- Consider different meanings for the biblical texts studied, with awareness of different interpretations
- Make clear connections between belief in the kingdom of God and how Christians put their beliefs into practice
- Show how Christians put their beliefs into practice in different ways
- Relate the Christian 'kingdom of God' model (i.e. loving others, serving the needy) to issues, problems and opportunities in the world today
- Articulate their own responses to the idea of the importance of love and service in the world today.

Information that will help me

The Bible, also known as the Holy Bible, is a group of religious texts of Judaism or Christianity. The word Bible comes from the Greek word τὰ βιβλία (biblía) which means "books" in English, because it is many books in one book. It includes laws, stories, prayers, songs, and wise words. The two main sections are the Old and New Testament

Parables

Jesus told over 50 parables which are recorded in The Bible. These stories are a way for Jesus to make a point or talk about the Kingdom of God which suggests that God's rule has begun though the life, teaching and example of Jesus. Christians consider what Jesus would do as a guide in their own lives.

What I have already learned about different religions

- Christians worship in churches through prayer, singing and services led by a priest, Minister or Vicar., reading from The Bible (Sacred Text)
- Muslims worship in a Mosque, read from The Koran (sacred Text) and believe in Mohammed
- Jews worship in a synagogue with services led by a rabbi reading from The Torah.
- Hindus worship in a temple led by a Mandir, reading from The Vedas (Sacred Text) and believe in Brahman who is One God with many qualities displayed in hundreds of Murtis (gods)
- Sikhs worship in a Gurdwara led by any Sikh, reading from The Guru Granth Sahib (Sacred Text)

The Lord's Prayer

'Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
